Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

I am appalled at the OMB Draft Guidelines that are being proposed -- guidelines which, if adopted, will devalue the lives of our Seniors simply because of their age. If the analysis is fully applied, regulations for air pollution, toxic waste cleanup, food labeling and other quality of life issues could be weakened or not even implemented at all--and our Seniors will feel the brunt of it since their health is the most vulnerable to dirty air and unhealthy food.

It is clear from these proposals that the White House is again trying to curry favor with the big industries that stand to gain from their implementation. It is immoral and unethical, to say the least.

Surely our elders deserve better!

Sincerely,

Roberta M. Burnes
